Prayer Garden

The Prayer Garden

A sacred space for personal devotion and spiritual connection is present. The Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus prayed, is a prime example of a place where individuals can find peace and strength in God's presence. This garden serves as a reminder of the importance of solitude and reflection in the life of a believer.

Daisy Screntity

Wailing Wall/Western Wall in Jerusalem

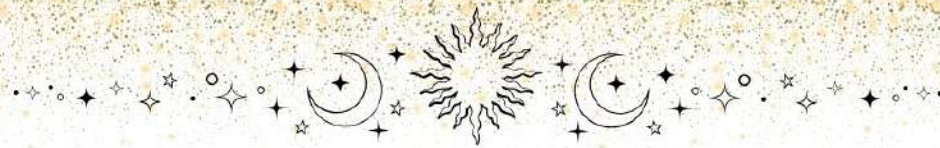

Is a significant ancient limestone fortification located in the Old City of Jerusalem. It is regarded as the closest remaining structure to the Second Temple, which was destroyed by the Romans in 70 CE. The wall is a place of prayer and pilgrimage for Jews, Christians, and Muslims, and is considered the holiest site for Jews due to its association with the Temple Mount, the traditional site of the Jewish Temple. The wall's name is derived from the lamentations of Jews who prayed there after the destruction of the Temple, and it plays a central role in the religious practices of many faiths.

Amphitheater

Ephesus Theater
